

MEMORANDUM

TO: College Deans, Associate Deans for Academic Affairs and Academic Department Heads

FROM: Warwick A. Arden
Executive Vice Chancellor and Provost

SUBJECT: 2022-23 University Faculty Scholars Program

DATE: August 30, 2022

The University Faculty Scholars Program was established in 2012 by Chancellor Woodson to recognize and reward emerging academic leaders among our tenured and tenure-track faculty. I am pleased to announce that the program is continuing for the academic year 2022-23. We will identify approximately twenty (20) tenured or tenure-track faculty scholars who will receive a permanent five percent increase to their base salary and will carry the title University Faculty Scholar for the duration of their faculty appointment at NC State.

The nomination process remains the same. Nominations are limited to assistant professors who have been re-appointed for a second term, all associate professors, and professors within the first three years of appointment at that rank. Faculty members who were nominated but not named University Faculty Scholars in previous years and still meet eligibility requirements may be re-nominated by their college. No faculty member may receive the award more than once.

The maximum number of nominations that each college may submit is listed in the following table. The number of nominations is based on the number of tenured and tenure-track faculty FTEs in that college. No college will receive a predetermined number of awards in any year.

Each college has established its own nomination procedure, including input from senior faculty in that college, and I have asked each dean to post their college's procedure on their website. If there have been changes to your college's nomination procedure, please be sure to inform Marielle Poca, assistant for communications in the Office of the Provost (mpoca@ncsu.edu), by September 15, so that she can link the revised procedures to the University Faculty Scholars Program website.

Nominations are due by Wednesday, October 19, 2022, and you will be receiving detailed instructions regarding submission of your college's nominees soon from Senior Vice Provost for Faculty and Academic Affairs Katharine Stewart. Judy Austin, awards coordinator, will be your contact person and you may reach her at jcaustin@ncsu.edu.
